

Thursdays at Noon: THREE Dreams and Wandering

Leslie Newman, flute
Nadina Mackie Jackson, bassoon
Guy Few, trumpet and piano

Thursday, January 12, 2017
12:10 pm, Walter Hall, 80 Queen's Park
~~Thursdays at Noon: THREE~~ PROGRAM

Miniatures for Solo Trumpet

Edward Hoffman

- I (very slowly but freely)
- II (with energy)

Gigue en Rondeau – Rondeau

Michel Blavet
(1700-1768)

Concerto No. 5 in A Major, Op. 38

Joseph Bodin de Boismortier
(1689-1755)

- I [Allegro]
- II Adagio
- III Allegro

Bacchanale

Mathieu Lussier
(b. 1973)

Trio Sonata in C Minor, Op. 2, No. 6

Jean-Baptiste Loeillet
(1680-1730)

- I Largo
- II Allegro
- III Adagio
- IV Allegro

Soliloquy

Bernard Garfield
(b. 1924)

Waltz from Jazz Suite No. 1

Dmitri Shostakovitch
(1906-1975)

Otoño Porteño

Astor Piazzolla
(1921-1992)

BIOGRAPHY

THREE is an innovative chamber group born through the collaboration of Canadian soloists Guy Few, Nadina Mackie Jackson and Leslie Newman. With a combined mastery of flute, trumpet, bassoon and piano, THREE's programming is versatile and eclectic, ranging from the masterpieces of Western Europe to Argentinean tangos to newly commissioned works by Canada's own great composers. Their 2015 Maritime tour celebrated the release of their self-titled cd, THREE.

Guy's musicianship has been noted by the international press: "outrageous...simply phenomenal" (Le Devoir) and "sheer brilliance" (L.A. Times). His 2017-2018 season will feature new trumpet concertos by Pete Meechan and John Estacio.

With 19 concerto, recital and chamber music albums to her credit, along with 48 orchestral albums, Nadina is Canada's most widely recorded bassoonist. She is a catalyst for new music with 16 works for solo bassoon and orchestra written for her along with as-yet uncounted solo and chamber works.

Leslie's current season has included the premiere of a new work for flute and soprano by Anna Höstman at Koerner Hall and an appearance as soloist with the Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra. Leslie performs regularly in recital with her duo partner, harpist Erica Goodman, as well as with her much loved friends Guy and Nadina in THREE.

nadinamackiejackson.com

leslienewman.ca

guyfew.com

Next up for Thursdays at Noon

January 19

Colin Ainsworth, tenor and Stephen Ralls, piano perform Liszt's Petrarch Sonnets, Britten songs and selections from Holman's A Play of Passion

January 26

Asher Ian Armstrong, piano performs an all-Franck program

@UofTMusic
music.utoronto.ca